3rd That we extend to the bereaved family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathies and commend them to God, who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

W. R. Davidson, W. R. Singleton, M. G. Reynolds, committee.

A joint Republican caucus nominated State Senator Wm. H. Cox, of Mayaville, to oppose Judge Paynter for the U. S. Senate. The vote will stand 26 for Cox and 105 for Paynter in the election which occurs to-day, and will be repeated the Tuesday following, as the law provides.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Harbnd, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. McCreary, wife of the Senator, will give her first reception of the season at the Hotel Cochran, January 25. She was among the guests, on Thursday, of a very smart luncheon, given by Mrs. Southerland in compliment to Mrs. Fairbanks. Mrs. Southerland and Mrs. McCreary are old-time friends. Mrs. McCreary entertained a few Kentucky friends at dinner New Year's night. Washington dispatch.

She is a daughter of Prof. Dickerson.

Friends of the contracting parties were surprised and pleased at an announcement of the marriage of Mrs. H. G. Litton to Hon. Ed Parker at Oklahoma City a few days since. In some vague way it is understood that the couple were lovers in their youthful days, and a renewal of the old flame is quite natural and interesting to the many friends of both. —Somerset Journal.

A Modern Miracle.

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn. "She was so wasted by coughing up puss from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side 48 hours; when, at my urgent request, Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and, continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman to-day." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Trial bottle free.

Huston Ball, a brother of Frank Ball, who is charged with having killed Jack Bolen at Middlesboro last October, in an interview, says: In less than a week Frank Ball will have come in and given himself up to county officers, as Gov. Beckham has withdrawn the reward offered by the State for Frank. I will attempt to have the reward offered by the Middlesboro Civic Union also withdrawn, as I expect to make no claim upon any one for my reward. I will accompany Frank to Pineville.

It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Penny's Drug Store.

The committee of surveyors composed of Col. Isaac Shelby, of Lincoln, W. B. Edwards, of Boyle, and the official surveyor of Casey, has agreed upon the boundary line at the point where Casey, Boyle and Lincoln counties come together. This line has been in dispute many years and three families have never before known in which county they resided. Recently the male members have been voting in Boyle, believing that they lived in this county. The three families which are changed from Boyle to Casey are Hollow Horn, Florin Wessinger and Henry Schon. There are four or five voters in the Bodner family and all of the families are democratic. The action of the committee will therefore help to swell the democratic majority of Casey and decrease the majority in Boyle.

The survey was made from the corner known as the "Five Mile Tree" at the junction of Stanford and Danville pikes below Shelby City and extends to the common corner of Lincoln, Casey and Boyle in the Gerinan settlement. —Danville News.

His last days are his worst; poor fellow! A few months ago Senator Chauncey Depew was riding the crest of the wave of popularity. Now there are none so low as do him honor. Since the disclosure in connection with the Equitable Life Assurance Society he has been regarded with suspicion, and knowing it he has avoided the gaze of the public. His wife, too, humiliated by the bitter comment on her husband, has decided to remain in London and not return to Washington—to resume her place as leader of the social circle. And now to cap the climax of his woes a resolution has been introduced in the New York Senate requesting Senator Depew to resign and return to the State the commission he has sullied. Verily, honesty is the best policy.

SECRETARY CORTELYOU, Postmaster General, exonerates Gov. Beckham of the charge of opening Senator Blackburn's letters unintentionally and says that the trouble is due to careless mail clerks. "No evidence that the mail had been tampered with designedly in the Frankfort postoffice or elsewhere was found," says he. We believed all the time, as no doubt did Senator Blackburn, who made the charge, that Gov. Beckham is too big a man to do so small a trick and we are surprised at the Senator's stooping to such a depth in his effort to discredit Kentucky's splendid executive.

THE New England woolen mill owners have raised the wages of their employees for the coming year an aggregate of $1,500,000. About 50,000 persons will reap the benefit. This is fine. But when one considers the extent of the protective ravage upon the pockets of the 75,000,000 people who either wear woollens, or would like to if they could afford it, the concession seems pitiful.

SENATOR R. L. Seems to us our clever Senator is going to be kept pretty busy.

ACCORDING to the estimate of United States Senator Teller the Philippines have cost the American people not less than $800,000,000 up to date, not to mention the great waste of valuable lives. Speech of Representative Alverson Nominating Lawrence for Speaker.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: Tonight two years ago in this beautiful little city under the hill, as most Kentuckians delight to call it, where live the most generous and hospitable people that God ever let the sun shine upon, the Representatives of the Democratic party met here in caucus to select nominees for its House officials with the magnificent majority of 76, and to-night in this historical old building a repetition of that splendid Democratic majority is shown upon the roll call, which goes to show that the people of the grandest and proudest Commonwealth in all the union indorse the acts of their Representatives at the last session of the General Assembly, as well as the prudent, economical and able administration of Kentucky's State officials, headed by J. C. W. Beckham, one of Kentucky's most illustrious sons and best loved Governors. Surrounded, as I am, with beautiful women—yes Kentucky women it affords me unbounded pleasure to be with my colleagues and Frankfort friends again, especially so upon an occasion like this, when I have the distinguished honor of nominating the next Speaker of this House.

Mr. Chairman, I hail from old Lincoln county, in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, the district in which I was born and reared, a district which to-day I love, cherish and respect, where Democrats like to do honor to Democrats who have always proved true and loyal to their party.

I want to place before this caucus a man for Speaker, who started his political career as a page in this House and who now desires to reach the highest office within its gift, the Speakership. His moral record is as spotless as the snow that falls from the heavens; a man who is as modest and gentle as a woman; a man who is possessed of the highest integrity; a man who is honest, capable and courageous; a man who will give to his colleagues a square and impartial deal; a man who will be courteous, but firm, brave, fearless and loyal to every interest of the great common people of Kentucky; last, but not least, a man who has always been loyal and true to old Democracy and to her nominees.

I now place before this caucus for your consideration that splendid and sterling young Democrat, Henry R. Lawrence, of the county of Trigg, for Speaker, who has been battling for Democratic principles and nominees for 20 years, and who now comes before you aspiring for that office, not appealing to you in a sympathetic manner, but comes on his record as a loyal Democrat and a Kentuckian to the manor born, believing that his claims should be given consideration at your honorable hands and that you, as Democrats, tried and true, will reward a worthy son who has followed that glorious old Democratic banner, wherever she has waved, under any and all circumstances.

Mr. Chairman, when the Democrats of old Trigg county, down in Western Kentucky, the home of Democracy, the district which gave to William Jennings Bryan the, matchless leader of the Democratic party and of the great common people of this country, 14,000 Democratic majority, were looking for a Hobson to sink the Republican party and not the Merrimac, the matchless Lawrence was chosen and how well he proved himself a Hobson, his presence here to-night for a third term attests to that fact in no uncertain tones.

Let's honor him who has been down in the Democratic trench, with his pick and spade, for all these years; let's honor him because he has always delighted to honor Democracy and its nominees and like that old story I have often heard, "together in victory, together in defeat." That truly can be said of him.
